

Descendants of John Handley

Generation No. 1

1. John³ Handley (William², James¹) was born 1746 in Augusta Co. VA, and died 13 Jan 1811 in Monroe Co. WV (Union), Green Hill Cemetery. He married Mary Harrison Abt. 1768, daughter of Benjamin Harrison. She was born 1745 in VA, and died 04 Dec 1829 in Huntington WV, Guyandotte Cemetery.

Notes for John Handley:

John Handley served as Patriot during the American Revolution. Some confusion exists between this John Handley of Monroe Co., and John Handley of Jefferson Co. (now Kentucky), once thought to be the same man. He was a Major in 1793 in the Virginia Militia, 108th Regiment, during the Whiskey Rebellion.

Peters Mountain Chapter of the West Virginia Society and Wharton Chapter of the Louisiana Society, National Society Daughters of the American Revolution and Lord Calvert, First West Virginia, Capt. James Gibson and Capt. Henry McPherson Chapter of United States Daughters of 1812 marked John Handley's grave in Green Hill Cemetery, Union, Monroe County, West Virginia, at 2:00 p.m. on July 7, 1996. A Dar marker and 1812 marker were installed at the foot of his grave.

Inscribed on headstone:

"Here lies the body of John Hanly who died in the 65th year of his age."

We remember John Handley with gratitude and thanksgiving for his contribution to the Independence of this great country.

NOTE: I believe the John Hundley noted in the List of Capt. John Lewis's Company, September 1774 to be this John Handley. The other men in this company were his peers and many from Union/Lewisburg, Monroe Co. I know that James Burnsides and Hugh Caperton are buried in the same cemetery as John Handley. See "Virginia's Colonial Soldiers" by Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck. I will try to locate original record and decipher record myself or by a professional. Original is part of Lyman Draper's Collection at the Wisconsin State Historical Society. Ref, #2ZZZ27 and 2ZZZ28.
